Abmaj7 Abm7/Db Db7

The first system of musical notation for 'The Sound of Silence' in F major. It features a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The melody begins with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, a quarter note Bb4, and a quarter note A4. This is followed by a triplet of eighth notes G4, A4, and Bb4. The melody then continues with a quarter note G4, a quarter note F4, and a quarter note E4. The bass line consists of a half note G2, a half note F2, and a half note E2. The system is divided into three measures by bar lines. The first measure contains the first six notes of the melody and the first half of the bass line. The second measure contains the next three notes of the melody and the second half of the bass line. The third measure contains the final two notes of the melody and the final half of the bass line. The system is labeled with the chord Abmaj7 above the first measure, Abm7/Db above the second measure, and Db7 above the third measure.

The first system of musical notation for 'The Girl on the Train' is presented in a single staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). The notation is divided into four measures, each with a chord symbol above it: Ebmaj7, Cm7, Fm7, and Bb7b9. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with a sixteenth-note triplet in the final measure. Below the staff, a series of numbers (3, 4, 6, 4, 6, B, 7, 8, 6, 4, 4, 3, 6, 6) are aligned with the notes, likely representing a fretboard or a specific fingering system.
